GOLF NEWS

Tamarind Grove 18 Hole Golf Group Completes First Annual Tournament

The Tamarind Grove 18 Hole Golf group was formed in March of 2012 with the goal of meeting neighbors (most members moved into the new village at about the same time), playing competitive golf, and most importantly – having fun.

In January, a three round individual tournament was played. It concluded with an awards and sit-down dinner and show at Sterling Heights Recreation Center on February 9th.

There were two Flights (Birdie and Eagle), so there were two first and second place winners. First place Eagle Flight went to Dave Webber. Second place was won by Steve Robb. First place Birdie Flight went to Lynn Glasscock. Second place was won by Rich Johns.

Comprised of close to 50 members, both men and women, the group plays different championship courses every Wednesday. Most of the time play is inside The Villages, however, during peak season, when consecutive tee times for 4 to 7 foursomes are sometimes difficult to obtain, the group visits other area courses outside The Villages.

Each player's handicap is computed on a weekly basis by the group. It has proven to be very accurate. Handicaps range from 6 to 36 and makes for very competitive weekly rounds. Games and teams change each week from two, three, or four person teams, best ball, or best two or three balls - all with full handicap. Once in awhile a Stableford or scramble is introduced. There are also two closest to the hole contests each week on selected Par 3's. Each week a request is emailed to the group asking members if they wish to play the following week.

It's a great way to meet neighbors and play some competitive and fun golf.

If you're interested in joining this fun group, and live in Tamarind Grove, please contact Barry Passen at 352-350-6407, or email him at bpassen@gmail.com.
