Get on the ball ! ! !

. . . a bocce league is forming

Can't get that stupid golf ball to go where you aim? Tired of being aced at pickleball? Too hot to play softball in the summer heat? Maybe it's time to try another type of ball – a bocce ball!

The Lakeside Grovers Bocce League is looking for players to gather on Wednesday evenings at 5:00 p.m. at Sterling Heights Rec Center. We meet in the pavilion for a little chit-chat before heading to the courts. After playing a game there is usually a group who head out for dinner afterward because we're all too interesting to limit our conversations to just an hour of play.

We don't care if you are a Bocce Virgin or a Bocce Virtuoso. It doesn't matter if you have a partner or come alone. Our Fearless Leader, Skip Gudeth, will put you on a new team each week, and no matter who you are paired with you're bound to have fun. And having fun is the reason for this league.

Want to give it a try? Contact Skip Gudeth at lgudeth@gmail.com.
