September 2019

The Old & The Reckless
- The Musical

Monday, September 23, 2019

Sterling Heights

6:30 p.m.

(Doors open at 6:00 p.m.)

September's event is a play in one-act brought to you by the same sick minds who wrote Dealt a Deadly Hand: Mick & Char Griffin, Marsha Herring and Jim Maloney (AKA MCM and Jim Productions.) This foursome also stars as the Villagers who discuss such joys of aging as frequent doctor's visits, wacky relatives, memory lapses, sleep difficulties, and life in America's Friendliest Hometown.

Oh, and did we say it was a musical? It is . . . technically. But don't expect Hamilton. (Perhaps Florence Foster Jenkins would be a better benchmark.) You may want to join in the singing just to drown out the cast. It won't be hard since all the songs are short excerpts from the glory days of our youth - only the lyrics have been tweaked to advance the storyline and embarrasses the innocent. Not to worry - the new words will be projected, Karaoke-style, if you want to sing along.

As in past Grover productions the cast will be reading their lines, but as you know if you've attended our other plays, you'll forget about the scripts once you start laughing. And to make sure you get the humor, the cast will be mic'd so even those of you who haven't gotten around to visiting your friendly, neighborhood hearing center can follow the banter.

This year's play has no mystery to solve, but to entice those members who only come for the prizes we will have goodies for the table that can answer some important questions at the end. (So you might want to stay awake throughout the performance.)

Since we don't want you to watch this play on an empty stomach, we will have a pizza buffet from Stavros & Sons, which includes their famous Greek salad. There will be cookies for dessert.

All this for only $ 10 !!

Better come to Ticket Tuesday this month. The tickets are sure to sell as fast as 2-for-1 drinks at Happy Hour, and you won't want to miss the debut performance of this engaging comedy. After all, the script is derived from the experience of living in The Villages with all of you!

CALLING ALL ARTISTS!

Yes, it's that time of year again . . . time to organize for our fourth annual show and sale! If you are an artist and are considering exhibiting your work, you're invited to our organizational meeting on September 15, at 4:00 p.m. Attendance at this organizational meeting is not mandatory, but helpful, especially if you haven't participated in the past. Informal minutes of the meeting will be distributed by email after the meeting. The Art Walk will take place on Sunday, December 1, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.

If you create something that you can sell, you would most likely be eligible. Our little band of artists even includes someone who wrote a children's book!

If you think this is something you'd like to do, please contact Lorelei Hoff for more information (701-527-7235 or lwhoff.fl@gmail.com).

December 4, 2019 Holiday Dinner Dance

Our Holiday Dinner Dance will be held this year on Wednesday, December 4th at the Savannah Center at 6:30 p.m. A sit down dinner will be served by La Hacienda Catering. Dawn DiNome and the Flashback Band will play for your listening and dancing pleasure. The entree choices will be New England Baked Flounder, Tender Beef Medallions, Cranberry Almond Chicken and a Vegetarian Pasta dish. The cost will remain the same as last year at $35 per person. There will be reserved seating with 8 or 9 at a table.

Tickets will go on sale in October.
